Holy Week & Triduum Preached Retreats

“Defiant Hope - Daring Trust”

In the atmosphere of the oppressive social, political and religious milieu of First Century Palestine, Jesus of Nazareth was an intrepid figure of “Defiant Hope and Daring Trust” in the Ways of God among the People of God; a sign of contradiction to hopelessness and despair. Our quest for greater intimacy with Jesus will lead us to hope defiantly and trust daringly...when we seek with an open heart and a willing spirit.

Our Presenter

Miriam Najimy is a Daughter of the Heart of Mary, an international congregation of women religious. She has been engaged in the ministry of spiritual growth through breaking open the Word of God to unfold its application to real life in our world today. The wonders to be found in the Word cannot be exhausted; God’s profound love knows no limits and pertains to each person in every generation.

Miriam has directed retreats based in Sacred Scripture for more than three decades, keeping pace with discoveries made concerning Biblical literature and societal, cultural and religious traditions of ancient times. She has directed retreats in the Holy Land, Paris, London, India, Ireland, Hungary and the United States.
